Gershon B. Marx, now held in the Norwich county jail in Colchester, Conn., is believed by the authorities the perpetrator of a series of murders probably without precedent in the history of Connecticut. They have begun a systematic search for bodies on the Marx farm. Four murders and an attempt to poison another man may, these officials say, be traced to Marx. Two bodies, those of Joe Favol and Joe Faint, have been found. Marx is awaiting trial, charged with the murder of Favol. The two bodies for which the search has been begun are those of an 18-year-old boy, known as "Harry," and a Hebrew pedler.

The formal engagement will soon be announced.

DEATH IN MILK DIET.

Rockefeller Institute Will Search for Cause of Infant Mortality.

Monkeys fed on bread and milk rarely live more than three or four years, though their natural lifetime in the wild state is from twenty-five to thirty years at least. Their bread and milk diet is held to be conducive to tuberculosis. These facts are to be used as the basis of exhaustive experimental work in the $10,000,000 hospital that is being built in New York by John D. Rockefeller as a memorial to his grandson, little John Rockefeller McCormick, son of Harold McCormick of Chicago. The child died of "summer complaint," and one province of the hospital, the construction of which has just been begun, will be to investigate in the hope of finding a specific for this disease, which is the most common cause of infant mortality. Special attention will be paid to milk and water supplies, as it is considered that the prime source of "summer complaint" is in milk and water.

ROUND ROBIN IN COURTSHIP WAR.

Logansport Young Men Retaliate Against Charges of Perjury.

Retaliation has been begun in reply to a public charge made by Logansport, Ind., girls that local young men were perjurors in their courtship. Over thirty young men met and a round robin was fashioned, pledging themselves to abstain from spending one penny on the young women of their choice until Jan. 1, 1905. The document sets forth that this is leap year, anyway, and that the complaint against challenging their liberality is uncalled for. They claim that hospitality should come for the remainder of the year from the young women. The signers pledge themselves to "starve" the other parties exclusively unless the young woman buys the tickets, and to abstain from gifts even at Christmas.

EDDY FAY BREAKS JAIL.

"King of Postoffice Burglars" Makes Good His Word.

Ed Eddy Fay, who was in jail in Jansville, Fla., awaiting trial on a charge of robbing the Superior (Wia.) postoffice of $14,000 in stamps and money, and for Chicago robberies, made a sensational escape from his cell some time during Thursday night. Fay was assisted by outsiders, who climbed to the second story outside his cell and sawed through the heavy iron bar, enabling him to effect his escape. Two others who were charged with complicity in the robbery are Charles Fishery, now in jail at Fort Leavenworth, and Ed Fishery, who made his escape from the Madison jail. Fay is said to be in Chicago. He is wanted there for several jobs.

MUST NOT SEARCH POCKETS.

Judge Reprimands Woman Who Was Too Free with Husband's Clothes.

Two women who are in the habit of going through their husbands' pockets after they have gone to sleep were warned in Cincinnati by Judge Dumont, who had before him Mrs. Julia White on a larceny charge. Mrs. White searched her husband's pockets and found therein a watch belonging to another woman. The other woman had her arrested when she refused to give up the timepiece. Judge Dumont dismissed Mrs. White, after she had returned the watch, with a warning not to search her husband's pockets in the future. As a result of the finding of the watch she has separated from her husband.

TWO DEAD; CAUSE JEALOUSY.

Love for 14-Year-Old Girl Leads to a Double Tragedy.

Mrs. Amanda Harter, aged 38, and James Leonard Druein, aged 29, were found dead in a flat in the Normandie in Cincinnati, under circumstances which indicate that Druein murdered the woman and committed suicide. With them lived Fannie Harter, aged 14, the niece and foster daughter of the woman. The theory most credited is that Mrs. Harter, in a jealous fit, beat the girl, that Druein interfered, strangled Mrs. Harter to death and afterward cut her head into pieces with a hatchet. It is claimed he then wanted the girl to escape with him, and when she refused shot himself.

DETECTIVES AS "HOBOS."

Travel with Tramps to Get Clue to Hobos of Illinois Central Train. After three weeks of "hobbing," in which they traveled several thousand miles and visited a dozen States, Sgt. James Mooney of the Chicago police department and John Howe, assistant special agent of the Illinois Central Railroad Company, have returned from an unsuccessful search for the bandits who held up the Diamond Special on the night of Aug. 1 near Mattison, Ill. In their wanderings the officers rode the bumpers of freight trains, the "blind" baggage of fast express cars, lived on "hand-outs," ate "Mulligan stew" with "egg men," and in every other way lived the life of tramps, even to washing their own shirts. "It was an experience I don't care to go through again," said Mooney, digging a cinder out of his eye, "but Howe and I thought we could get information that way as to the gang that held up the special. Of course we had to have nicknames to begin with. All 'hobos' do, was known as the 'Chicago Kid' and Howe traveled under the name of 'St. Louis Red.' We 'bummed' our way on freight and passenger trains as far south as Nashville and to Denver on the West. We didn't get any farther East than Buffalo. Wherever we could we ate with parties of tramps, and after 'feeling them out' would quit them. All together we must have met and traveled with 300 knights of the road. We slept alongside of railroad tracks with big bonfires made from ties to keep us warm. We took our turn at begging or stealing vegetables for the dish called 'Mulligan stew'—in the preparation of which every man in the party must bring back the ingredient he is sent after. It's a great experience, but I wouldn't care to spend my vacation that way."

WRONG MAN IS MURDERED.

Alleged Insane Person Mistakenly Shot by Landdowne for a Brother.

John Lieberth, brother of George Lieberth, internal revenue collector of Corning, Ky., district, has been arrested charged with the murder of John C. Landowne, who was stabbed near his home in Corning and died shortly after reaching his home. Landowne had alighted from a street car and was going home when a man rushed up and stabbed him. He managed to reach home, where before dying he said to his brother Wallace that John Lieberth had stabbed him. The motive appears in the fact that some time ago Wallace Landowne preferred charges against Collector Lieberth and the assassin mistook John Landowne for Wallace. It is said that a warrant was issued two or three days ago for Lieberth at the request of his family, who wanted to restrain him because his mind seemed affected. When arrested, though well known to the officers, he refused to give his name and appeared to be in a stupor.

MOB SLAYS A NEGRO.

Black Man Lynched Before House of Laramie Judge.

Joe Martin, colored, a trusty in the county jail in Laramie, Wyo., was seized in the jail by a mob of 300 men and was hanged to a lamp post. He had attacked a white girl, Kate Kane, in the jail kitchen, slashing her with a razor. She undoubtedly would have been killed but for the wife of Sheriff Cook, who held the negro until help came. In the struggle a turnkey was injured slightly by Martin, who also cut himself in a suicide attempt. Martin was put into a cell. The mob gathered quickly and sent two masked representatives into the jail with keys. They held up the sheriff, took the keys and marched Martin out, hanging him with little disorder. He did not speak a word or resist. The girl will recover.
